A Call to Return- By Sam Hodges (with comments by Janet Van Why)

Sam Hodges writes: "As church attendance numbers fade across the nation and online services become very convenient, it's important to remember why church attendance for you and your family matters so much.

You can't serve from your sofa.....You can't experience the power of a room full of believers worshipping together on your sofa.

Christians aren't consumers. We are contributors. We don't watch. We engage. We give. We sacrifice. We encourage. We pray by laying hands on the hurting. We do life together.

The church needs you.
And you need the church."

Taken from author's post published 2/17/22

As I ponder the author's words I am aware of the many, many ways people are being reached by the virtual messages they are hearing. The gospel is being spread this way. Living rooms and computer screens are broadcasting messages of hope and faith into the lives and hearts of so many.

I am also aware exactly what the author wants to convey. That human touch and personal interactions- real-person to person, is something that cannot be fully duplicated virtually. True service is not done with just our eyes and ears, but also uses our hands, feet, mouths and minds as the Lord directs, leads and enables.

I personally am grateful that our church has re-opened it's physical doors. That we can gather together in worship and have opportunities to serve each other and the Lord in fellowship as we gather together! - Janet
